Local doctors and community supporters running for charity. Fun run will raise money to support local health needs

Stanislaus County - The Stanislaus Family Medicine Residency Program in partnership with the Health Services Agency Foundation are holding their 20th annual Run for Health on Saturday, April 21 at East La Loma Park off La Loma Avenue in Modesto. The run celebrates National Public Health Week and is sponsored by the Stanislaus County Family Medicine Residency Program of the Health Services Agency.

Registration starts at 9 a.m. with the run beginning at 10:00 a.m.

The race features five and ten kilometer distances and a one-mile fun run. Walkers are welcome for the five kilometer, ten kilometer or one-mile distances. Awards go to the top finishers and post-race raffle drawing will be held.

The cost is $25, children twelve and under is $10 dollars. Proceeds will benefit the Health Services Agency Foundation and will be used to help support the Reach Out and Read program.

People can register for the event by contacting Cora Hernandez at (209) 576-3523.

All participants receive a free t-shirt while supplies last and are eligible for a prize drawing at the event.
